

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Jack L. Poncelet's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize these patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Poncelet has devoted over 29 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a combat engineer, including over two years of active Army service in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Poncelet continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Staff Sergeant Jack L. Poncelet for over 29 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 7, 2013, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourth Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Thirteen.

Dennis Daugaard
